

NEWS DIGEST OF THE HIGH COMMISSIONER FOR HUMAN RIGHTS
IN THE RUSSIAN FEDERATION
APRIL 13-14, 2022

On April 12, the High Commissioner for Human Rights in the Russian Federation Tatiana Moskalkova met with Mr. Karim Atassi, acting Head of the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees in the Russian Federation.

Karim Atassi recently returned from the Rostov Region, where he and his team visited a number of temporary accommodation centres for people evacuated from the DNR, LNR and Ukraine, and gave the most positive assessment of the work with refugees by regional governmental agencies.

Besides, he did not confirm the information disseminated by the Kiev regime about the alleged forced deportation of people to Russian territory.

We have agreed to cooperate further.

Read more

Together with Dmitriy Shakhov, the Commissioner for Human Rights in the Pskov Region, we visited a child who was treated in one of the hospitals. Seven more children between 2 and 16 years old with similar fates, residents of the villages of Russkiye Tishki, Kazachya Lopan, Izyum and Mariupol, are also being treated at Moscow's Research Institute of Emergency Pediatric Surgery and Traumatology with their relatives. These children are survivors of the horrors of the neonationalists, some with severe mine blast injuries.

Read more

- Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights in the Russian Federation